Featured Speaker

Dan Juneau has been president of LABI since 1989 and is the organization's chief strategist, lobbyist and spokesperson. He has spent the past 34 years designing and implementing key reforms in areas such as taxation, civil justice, workers and unemployment compensation, workforce development and public education. He also plays a major role in state economic development efforts.

Juneau believes that business' participation in the legislative arena is essential for economic development and prosperity in Louisiana. At the Legislative Issues Conferences, he will be presenting LABI's priorities for the upcoming 2010 regular legislative session, the state's fiscal outlook, and will discuss federal legislation that could dramatically affect Louisiana businesses.
